

Privacy Policy

North London Action for the Homeless will not release any information given by you at this site to third parties. We are opposed to unsolicited commercial email and will never pass details onto any agencies.

This site does not use any form of intrusive monitoring, whether it be with persistent cookies or with 'web bugs'. Cookies may be used for other purposes to enhance the customisability and interactivity with the site.

A cookie is a small piece of code that is placed onto a user's computer, phone, tablet or any other device that accesses the web that allows websites to track and/or report on what a user does.

Our site uses Google Analytics which allows us to track how many people visit the site, what our most popular pages are etc. This requires cookies in order to work, and you will be asked to opt-in before a cookie is placed on your device in line with the Privacy and Electronic Communications guidelines on the ICO website.
